Emergency Grant Aid in response to the damage by El Niño phenomenon in Somalia

1. On 29th January, the Government of Japan decided to extend Emergency Grant Aid of 6.3 million US dollars through the United Nations World Food Programme (WFP) in response to the damage by El Niño phenomenon in East Africa. Among this aid package, 1.4 million US dollars are allocated for the project in Somalia.
2. This emergency grant aid is to provide food and nutrition support programme to Somalia, where serious humanitarian needs are growing by drought and flood caused by the El Niño phenomenon.
